

REVOLUTION IN THE SOUTH

FREE WORKSHOP FOR VA AND NC TEACHERS

Presented by

Saturday, November 5, 2022

9:00 AM-3:00 PM

Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History

975 Main Street, Danville, VA 24541

HIGHLIGHTS:

The War in the South in the Struggle for Independence, 1775-1783

John W. Gordon, PhD,
Command and Staff College,
Marine Corps University

A Lesson about Saving Soldiers: Medical Practice during the Revolutionary War

Stacia Smith, Director of Education,
The American Revolution Institute

The Crossing of the Dan

Paul Smith, South Boston—Halifax County
Museum of Fine Arts and History

Southern Heroines in the Revolution

Rachel Nellis, Research Services Librarian,
The American Revolution Institute

Making History Personal

Tina Cornely, Interim Director,
Danville Museum of Fine Arts & History

Registration required; six hours of professional development hours conferred relative to the History and Social Science Standards of Learning for Virginia Public Schools (VS.5, VUS.4, USI.6) and North Carolina's fifth grade, eighth grade, and American History I essential standards. Continental breakfast and lunch provided; travel stipend available upon request. Funding provided by the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Virginia and the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati. To register, contact ARI Director of Education, Stacia Smith at ssmith@societyofthecincinnati.org.

Image: Unknown American engraver after Alonzo Chappel (1828–1887). Lee's Cavalry Skirmishing at the Battle of Guilford. New York: Johnson, Fry & Co., 1857. The Society of the Cincinnati, The Robert Charles Lawrence Fergusson Collection