

REVOLUTIONARY VOICES

LESSER-KNOWN TESTIMONIES FROM AMERICA'S WAR FOR INDEPENDENCE

FREE WORKSHOP FOR VA TEACHERS

Saturday, February 3, 2024

9:00 AM-3:00 PM

George Mason's Gunston Hall

10709 Gunston Road

Mason Neck (Lorton), VA 22079

HIGHLIGHTS:

The Critical Role of Spain during the American Revolution

Dr. Larrie Ferreiro, George Mason University

America's First Allies: The Oneida Indian Nation

Anne Walker, Thomas A. Edison High School

Southern Heroines in the Revolution

Rachel Nellis, Research Services Librarian,
The American Revolution Institute

Destruction & Wanton Waste: The Impact of War in a Peaceful Valley & the Quaker Community

Andrew Outten, Historical Programs Manager,
The American Revolution Institute

Presented by

HOME OF
American Rights

Registration required; six hours of professional development hours conferred relative to Virginia's 2023 Standards of Learning for History & Social Science (grades 1, 2, 4, 5, and 11). Continental breakfast and lunch provided along with admission to Gunston Hall Mansion, Museum and Grounds; travel stipend available upon request. Funding provided by the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Virginia. To register, contact ARI Director of Education, Stacia Smith, at ssmith@societyofthecincinnati.org.